Blood drive at Liberty Tax Service

PARSIPPANY: Liberty Tax Service of Parsippany and the American Red Cross will be hosting a roadside Blood Drive from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. on Feb. 26

The Blood Mobile will be stationed at 92 North Beverwyck Road in Lake Hiawatha for the duration of the event, according to a press release from Liberty, which said that the Tax Service will be donating free tax preparation services as a reward to all members of the community who donate blood.

Accounting firm passes peer review

PARSIPPANY: The accounting firm of Fischer Barr & Wissinger LLC formally announced they have received a clean opinion and have passed peer review without exception.

A peer review is a periodic external review of a firm's quality control system in accounting and auditing. AICPA members engaged in the practice of public accounting are required to practice in a firm that is enrolled in an approved practice-monitoring program such as the Peer Review Program.

George Washington grad joins Riker Danzig

MORRISTOWN: Riker Danzig Scherer Hyland & Perretti has hired Scott L. Newman as counsel in the firm's Tax and Trusts & Estates Group.

Newman's practice encompasses all aspects of estate planning and administration for domestic and international high net-worth individuals and families. As part of his practice, he advises clients on asset protection, charitable giving, business succession planning and life insurance. Newman also represents beneficiaries and fiduciaries in disputes and tax audits, according to a press release from the firm.

Newman received his undergraduate degree from The George Washington University in 1993 and his J.D., with honors, from The George Washington University Law School in 1996.

Newman is admitted to practice in New York and Florida and before the United States Tax Court. Prior to joining Riker Danzig, he was a senior associate with Willkie Farr & Gallagher LLP, resident in the firm's New York office.

Tri-County adds a surgeon

MORRISTOWN: Tri-County Orthopedics has added a sports medicine, foot and ankle and orthopedic surgeon, Dr. David M. Epstein, to its team of specialists.

Epstein specializes in sports-related injuries and conditions as well as the treatment and care of the foot and ankle. He is available to treat patients at Tri-County Orthopedics' Morristown and Sparta locations.

Epstein graduated from the University of Pennsylvania where he majored in economics prior to obtaining his medical degree at Stony Brook School of Medicine in New York. After graduate school, Epstein performed his orthopedic surgery residency at the Hospital for Joint Diseases at NYU Langone Medical Center. He then received advanced training in sports medicine through a fellowship at Lenox Hill Hospital, where he assisted in the care of several professional and collegiate sports teams.

Additionally, Epstein completed a second fellowship at the Institute for Foot & Ankle Reconstruction at Mercy Medical Center for advanced training in foot and ankle surgery.
